DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-5,7-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frost in view of Bregler et al. Bregler shows the use of ferrite-perlite steel. It is mentioned by Bregler that the properties of such material is well known. Thus an artisan would know the properties and the requirements of an article to be made. It thus would have been obvious for an artisan specify such material for a razor blade. The exact amounts of the components if not differing much from those disclosed in the patent would appear to be obvious.

Claims 1-2, 4, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Futterer et al. The rational here is as in the preceeding paragraph.

Claims 1-2, 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Penozza in view of Bregler et al. The rational is the same as for the preceeding combinations.

Election/Restrictions

Claims 13-14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 4.

Conclusion

Applicant offered few arguments. The amendments to the claims have obviated the rejections based on the stone ax references since they do not disclose the exact claimed composition. It is felt however that the claims are still met by the combinations rejections.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
